OLD BUSINESS

1. Act 182 (2022) Land Access & Opportunity Board report

Act 182 update presented by Dan Coutu included the information that this is a 5 year project and this group meets frequently and will be hiring staff to work on interacting with other state agencies and identifying what agencies impede the access to land to Vermont citizens. The new job positions will include social networking.

2. Act 142 (2022) Racial Justice Statistics Advisory Council

Act 142; no updates.

3. Act 154 (2022) Environmental Justice Advisory Council

Act 154; meeting in the next few months

4. Act 174 (2020) Vermont State Parks - Abenaki waymarking

Act 174; discussion was had regarding adding Abenaki names to State Park signage

5. Act 128 (2022) VT Truth & Reconciliation Commission -TRC

Act 128; new website here: <https://vtrc.vermont.gov/> Melody Mackin updated us on the work of the Vermont Truth and Reconciliation Commission and story collecting has not started yet but meetings are happening. Please see the new website for more info.

6. Act 152 (2022) Nondiscriminatory school branding/mascots

Act 152 update not conclusive as state has not responded to complaints.

7. VT Health Equity Advisory Council (HEAC) ongoing

Vermont Health Equity Advisory Council (HEAC) is ongoing. By consensus Deb Reger will be the VCNAA rep as well as the representative for the Koasek of Koas as the law states there are 29 seats on this council with each state recognized tribe having a seat as well as VCNAA having one seat. Act 33 passed in 2021 and Xsusana Davis is the contact.

8. Seventh Generation Curriculum Grant Committee report

Seventh Generation Curriculum Grant Committee report from Jeff Benay included a suggestion he has been advocating which is for schools to stay open on Indigenous Peoples' Day and teach Abenaki Curriculum. He told us about the programs in Franklin County and other schools that are supporting the Abenaki curriculum and will be having programs this year. Many schools are having presentations by Tribal representatives and there are also residency programs being organized. Jeff is also meeting with the Agency of Education (AOE) to discuss the Abenaki Curriculum Project with other members attending this meeting. There is also an Equity in Education report that has been issued with public meetings happening. It will still be up to local boards to put these programs in place or keep in place as many of these positions have been in place with post pandemic grants from federal funding grants.

NEW BUSINESS

1. VCNAA part-time staff position with Agency of Commerce & Community Development/Division of Historic Preservation

VCNAA has been granted a part-time funded position. It will be part time with 24 hours a week to facilitate communication between agencies. Position will be described and advertised.

2. Environmental Journal Symposium, early Nov., VT Law & Graduate School

There will be a symposium at Vermont Law and Graduate School to discuss insuring Tribal Voices are included in policies regarding the environment.

3. Support Statement for State Tribal recognition process from VCNAA

A statement of support for State Tribal Recognition from VCNAA will be prepared by committee and passed by consensus and a committee was formed to include Dan, Deanna, Rich, and others.

4. Reauthorize or update statutory board/council positions

Reauthorizing statutory board positions not necessary at this time.
